Experience

Janice Bereskin is co-leader of the Trademarks practice group.

Her practice focuses on Canadian and international trademarks. She has in-depth experience in search analysis, filing applications, oppositions, cancellation proceedings and portfolio management. Janice offers clients strategic advice for protecting and managing their trademarks in Canada and abroad.

Janice was a recipient of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada (IPIC) Education Foundation Prize for achieving the highest mark overall in the Canadian Trade-mark Agent Examination. Janice also successfully completed the Intellectual Property Summer Institute (IPSI) program at the Franklin Pierce Law Centre.

Janice is an active member of the International Trademark Association (INTA). She served on INTA's Board of Directors and co-chaired an INTA Presidential Task Force. In 2015, INTA honoured Janice with the Volunteer Service Award in the Advancement of the Association. Currently, Janice is a member of the Building Bridges Committee and is a Coordinator of the Programming Advisory Council.
