

How to Apply

What We Are Looking For in a Candidate

During the application process, we look for candidates that are well-rounded with good academic records, interesting extra-curricular activities, and diverse work experience. As we are committed to providing professional development, candidates that we select are team-oriented and are interested in making a long-term commitment to the firm.

We believe it is very important to start your career in an environment where you can grow and develop. Finding a firm that best fits your needs is one of the most important decisions you will ever make.

What We Are Looking For in an Application Package

Please include a cover letter, resume, photocopies of official transcripts from law school, undergrad, or any other post-secondary education, and a list of upper year courses. Writing samples are not required unless otherwise requested.

Your cover letter should not be longer than one (1) page. It should be personalized to our firm, and it should tell us why you want to work at Bereskin & Parr.

Your resume should not be longer than two (2) pages and it should include the following information: Contact Information; Education; Employment History; Volunteer/Extra-Curricular Activities; and Awards/Scholarships.
