Manual IP is formally known as "Manual for the Handling of Applications for Patents, Designs and Trademarks Throughout the World". The Manual for the Handling of Applications for Patents, Designs and Trade Marks throughout the World was edited for the first time in 1927. In the many years of its existence, it has become a well-known reference book in the field of industrial property. Since 1936, the Manual has been edited in looseleaf binder form, in order to facilitate the updating of its contents.

The Manual IP – along with all the other founts of information and guidance available through Kluwer IP Law – enable IP prosecution professionals such as patent and trademark attorneys and agents, in-house counsel, formality and support officers, and paralegals to be effective in their day-to-day jobs in a way that could not have been imagined even a few years ago.
